Getting Registered

Steps to Register

- ✓ Provide ACT or Compass scores.
- ✓ Review the catalog and class schedule prior to registration, this will help you choose the location, days and times of classes that work best for you.
- ✓ Attend a new student advising & registration session, plan on 1.5 hours for the session, no appointment necessary.
- ✓ At your session, you will receive both an orientation to online registration and an opportunity to register for classes.

For the most up-to-date version of the class schedule, visit <https://mycsi.csi.edu>.

Tips for Online Search:

- To view CWI courses, ALWAYS select the College of Western Idaho campus in the selection criteria.
- To view all CWI courses, select College of Western Idaho Campus and click on Search.
- To narrow your search, enter additional criteria such as Department (i.e. Math), Time, Building (see Location Codes, p. 6), Section Status (i.e. view Open Classes only).

A printable version of the schedule is also available online at: <http://cwidaho.cc/programs-and-degrees/catalog-and-class-schedule.php>.

Accreditation

The College of Western Idaho delivers college credit instruction, certificates and degrees through its memorandum of understanding with the College of Southern Idaho (CSI). CSI is accredited through The Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). Credits, certificates and degrees earned at CWI appear on CSI transcripts and are transferable to four year institutions, subject to the specific policies of those institutions.

CWI’s accreditation partner, the College of Southern Idaho received its first accreditation in 1968. Since that time, the college has been continuously accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU).

The Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities is a regional postsecondary accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

The information in this schedule reflects current programs, requirements, and costs. These are all subject to change, and the College of Western Idaho reserves the right to make any necessary revisions in the information contained here without prior notice.
